Executive Proclamation
Office of the Governor

Whereas, South Dakota was founded with hard work, perseverance, dedication to duty, and concern for one's fellow man; and,

Whereas, Dr. K-Lynn Paul has served The University of South Dakota School of Medicine as the Psychiatry Residency Training Director for 18½ years; and,

Whereas, Dr. Paul had dedicated himself to educating medical students in the field of psychiatry; and,

Whereas, Dr. Paul has cared for the chronically mentally ill population in the state of South Dakota, serving on the Board of Directors of the National Alliance for the Mentally Ill of South Dakota and as a member of the Governor's Mental Health Advisory Committee; and,

Whereas, Colleagues, family, and friends will gather on June 28, 2005, at a reception in Dr. Paul's honor for his commitment of service to the state of South Dakota, and it is fitting and proper for the Governor to honor this outstanding South Dakotan on the occasion of his retirement:

Now, Therefore, I, M, Michael Rounds, Governor of the state of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim June 28, 2005, as in South Dakota, and I join his colleagues, friends and family as they recognize Dr. Paul for his commitment to a successful career and extend best wishes for a healthy and happy retirement.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the state of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Sixth Day of June in the Year of Our Lord, Two Thousand and Five.

M. Michael Rounds, Governor

Attest:

Chris Nelson, Secretary of State
